STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

Spring is coming, but don't take 'em off yet.

Most women prefer to be taken at their face value.

Well, Uncle Joe Cannon got enough of congress at last.

Yes, those who have the most temper frequently lose it.

A real test of optimism is to make out an income tax return.

There are few cheaper things in the world than a vote of thanks.

A baseball team is seldom as good as the sport writers make you think it is.

About time to start the annual agitation for a safe and sane Fourth of July.

And now an indestructible phonograph record is on the market. What a pity.

Apparently nobody wanted Muscle Shoals until Henry Ford made a bid for it.

David may have been a tax assessor when he said, in his haste, that all men are liars.

The chap who fills up on moonshine at night can't appreciate the sunshine next day.

If you think it is easy to write a column of this sort of stuff, you just try it sometime.

It is said that Lenin's power in Russia is waning. Sound good whether it is true or not.

The world does not move.
Atlantic City has prohibited scant bathing suits.

The coal miners seem to be in earnest about striking on All Fool's Day.

No young fellow turns out as people expect, says an exchange, so why worry?

The politicians are again telling us that something must be done for the farmer. This is election year, you know.

INDIFFERENCE TO LIFE

The warm weather and the approach of spring, when motoring becomes a pleasure, recalls the necessity for a more stringent enforcement of all the rules regulating motor traffic.
There are statutes, both state and city, to cover all violations of the law, but if a public board in motor cars is indifferent to rules of the road, then there must be some drastic action to enforce them.

There are times when a pedestrian take his life in his hands when he ventures on the streets.
In the larger cities, especially, the man or woman on foot, even with their faculties alive to the situation, are in danger, while the child playing in the street, indifferent to everything except the exuberance of youth, is often the victim of a careless driver.

The speedster should be treated as a murderer, for by the mere act of speeding he endangers human life. Too many drivers are brutally insolent and wholly indifferent to the safety and convenience of pedestrians.

There is something weak and wrong about a government with a pedestrian majority that permits such an enormous outrage to continue.

DISTRICT REGISTRATION BOOKS CLOSE FIRST MON.

The district or precinct registration books will close on the first Monday in April.

The books will be open in my office on and after the first Monday in April, but as many will have no occasion to come to the county seat, it is best that they register with the district registrars before the district books close. According to the opinion by the attorney-general of Florida, all women voters will be required to pay one dollar poll tax in order to vote in the primary and they should not lose sight of this very important fact.

Register now and pay your poll tax.

CRICKET PREWITT,
Supervisor of Registration.

Brevity is said to be the soul of wit. And these modern skirts excite levity because of their brevity.

France seems to be getting along better since she quit depending on Germany's promises to pay.

Most automobiles have too much horse power and most au-tomobilists have too little horse sense.

Twenty-eight seniors at Princeton claim they have never kissed a girl. The rest of them tell the truth.

The New York Tribune remarks that there are three-year-old children in Mexico now who have never seen a war.

YOUR JOB

A five-year old child the other day asked, "Daddy, where does corn come from?" "Well," replied daddy, "a man in the country plants some seed corn in the spring, when the leaves begin to come on the trees, and the seed grows into stalks upon which the corn grows. In the autumn, when the leaves fall off the trees, the man gathers the corn and takes it to a grist mill, where another man grinds it into meal. Then other men take it on a freight train and carry it to the city, where it is placed in the stores. And when daddy wants any corn meal he goes to the store and buys it, and that is how we get corn meal mush."

And here the child uttered a great economic truth, for he remarked, aren't people good to us, daddy.

The father had never thought of it in that way, but that is how every man's job works out, though he may be thinking only of the reward that comes to him.
Every man's job is one of serving not so much himself as it is of assisting others. Every worker is performing a service to hundreds of thousands of other people, and the better he does his job the better he is to the multitude that benefits from his work, whether it be digging a ditch for a water main or endeavoring to reduce armaments.

TAX THESE, TOO

Congress and state legislatures are looking for new subjects of taxation. We respectfully suggest these:

Book agents.
Women who monopolize the telephone for conversation.

Young men and women who monopolize for love making.

Politicians who say they announce for office "at the solicitation of their friend."

Fake "students" begging for money to enable them to get a "scholarship."

People who try to use the newspapers to vent their spleen against their personal enemies.

Ten pounds.

Drug store loafers.

Flappers and male pinheads who squeeze three to a seat on the front seat of an automobile.

Young girls who paint and powder like hardened women of the street.

Men and women who come late to the theatre in order to "show off."

People who cough loudly in church or other places of public assembly.

People who constantly knock other people.

And aged women who try to kill all the joy for others by trying to act like sixteen-year-olds.

THE THIRD DEGREE

Pittsburgh has set the rest of the country an example. By order of the superintendent of police, third degree methods of obtaining confessions from prisoners at police stations are no longer permitted.

This action has been taken in part as a result of trials at which prisoners from whom confessions had been wrung in this way have been acquitted.
Their confessions were thrown out of court.

This is a practical consideration which cannot be ignored by police officials who know that it is not the number of arrests but the number of convictions that count.

It will not be disputed that confessions are occasionally obtained by these extreme methods that could not have been obtained otherwise, but their use taints every "confession" which is thus forced.

Confession by torture is commonly thought of as mediæval.
It has no place in these modern times.

ATHLETIC CLUB TO MEET

The Athletic Club will have its monthly meeting next Thursday, 8 p. m., at the home of Miss Clare Weimar, corner of Sixth and Ash streets. All members are asked to attend, as urgent business is to be transacted.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends, brother Masons, sister Stars, Dr. Bunker and Mrs.
Lightbody for their kind devotion shown us in our recent bereavement, also for the many beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Geo. Hubbell and family.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

It will be interesting to learn that Mr. G. B. Seitz, with a party of five, representing the Pathe Motion Picture Players, of Jacksonville, spent Sunday in Fernandina, looking over the possibilities of Amelia island for suitable settings for making pictures, and it is probable that they will return to make pictures at old Fort Clinch.

Among those registered at the Keystone Hotel during the past week are: Messrs. H. H.
Howard, Glen H. Mays, Fla.;
P. L. Kelly, Charleston, S. C.; H. C. Kerwin, C. K. Corper, C. P.
McKinney, B. H. Hopkins, Max and Wallie Grunthal, John Tal-fair, Jacksonville; Parker Hamilton, Atlanta; John C. Mc-Quinn, Lancaster, Penn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Roberts, Macon, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hart, Miss Patricia Hart, Hartford, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Loveland, and son, Hammonton, N. J.; Miss Florence Lawson, Jacksonville; Mrs. C. B. McCor-rall and party, Jacksonville.

The Fernandina Tennis Club have in contemplation a tennis tournament which they propose to inaugurate within the next week or ten days, and it is urgently requested that every member of the club, both ladies and gentlemen, who play, give their names to the committee at once, in order that we may know just how many there will be. The entrance fee of 25c is to cover the cost of balls, etc., incident to the tournament. Two beautiful trophy cups and many other handsome prizes have been contributed by the business men and others of the city, which will be displayed in one of the downtown show windows as quickly as they can be assembled. The prizes should arouse a wonderful spirit of rivalry, which is necessary in order to make the tournament the success it should be.

The New York woman who married eight husbands had a lot of curiosity at any rate.

With cabbage selling for only $6 a ton on the farm, why can't we get a decent five-cent cigar?
